Membership in NACM Midwest offers credit professionals the information and resources needed to achieve career and financial success.

The Association is a forum in which members can come together for networking and other business purposes. NACM Midwest provides opportunities for members to grow personally and to enhance their leadership skills.

Every company, large or small, can benefit from the many services offered by NACM Midwest. We are the largest business credit trade association in the Midwest, and together with the other NACM affiliates, comprise the largest in the country. Belonging to NACM Midwest means belonging to the national business credit community! It pays to get connected with the people who can help you most. Apply today!

Networking Opportunities

Meet and get acquainted with peers in your industry and profession. Gain access to speakers and educators relevant to your career at educational and social events. NACM Midwest also features an online roster available only to members.

Education

Classes, Seminars, Expos, Conferences, and Industry Group meetings provide opportunities to enhance your skills in many areas of your profession. A monthly magazine and a bi-monthly newsletter will keep members up-to-date on the latest tools, events and articles to assist with day-to-day responsibilities.

Collections

Need help collecting past due debt? NACM Midwest and Caine & Weiner have formed an alliance partnership to bring you one of the highest quality collection services available.

Discounts

Member discounts on all products and services such as credit reports, collection services, lien filings, credit card processing, check guarantees, electronic funds transfer, on-line billing and more!
